

Privacy Policy

We are committed to protecting consumer privacy during visits to our website and recognise our responsibility to hold your information secure and confidential.

Access to your information is limited to those employees of Bahrain Financing Company and its affiliates who need it to fulfil their business responsibilities. Vendors and other outside contractors we engage are subject to our non disclosure contractual requirements to ensure that your personal information is safeguarded.

We employ appropriate measures to protect your information against unauthorized access, destruction, alteration or disclosure including physical access security, encryption and policies and procedures.

We collect personal information when you register for the Online Remittance service or transact on our website. We may use this information you provide, or that which we collect via this website, to provide more relevant products and information to you.

You are entitled to obtain copies of records relating to your business with us. These records are kept for 10 years.

If you have any questions or comments regarding our Privacy Policy please contact BFC on contactus@bfc.com.bh.